

Please do not allow LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service. The main FM station I and millions of other listen to is K-LOVE. K-LOVE provides positive, family friendly, advertisement free listening enjoyment that has made a definite calming impact on me personally. Based on comments from others, this experience is being duplicated throughout my community - even some of the bus drivers have commented how different the students act when K-LOVE is playing versus other stations.